

5 Themes Review

Absolute Location History

In America, the territories were precisely mapped northwestern to encourage settlers to move west.

36	30	24	18	12	6
35	29	23	17	11	5
34	28	22	16	10	4
33	27	21	15	9	3
32	26	20	14	8	2
31	25	19	13	7	1

Formal Region (Uniform)

- Homogenous in

Functional Region

- the product of

The 3 Types of Regions

characteristics

and of various kinds.

Perceptual Region

- reflects and images rather than objective data – primarily in the of people

Different Types of Thematic Maps

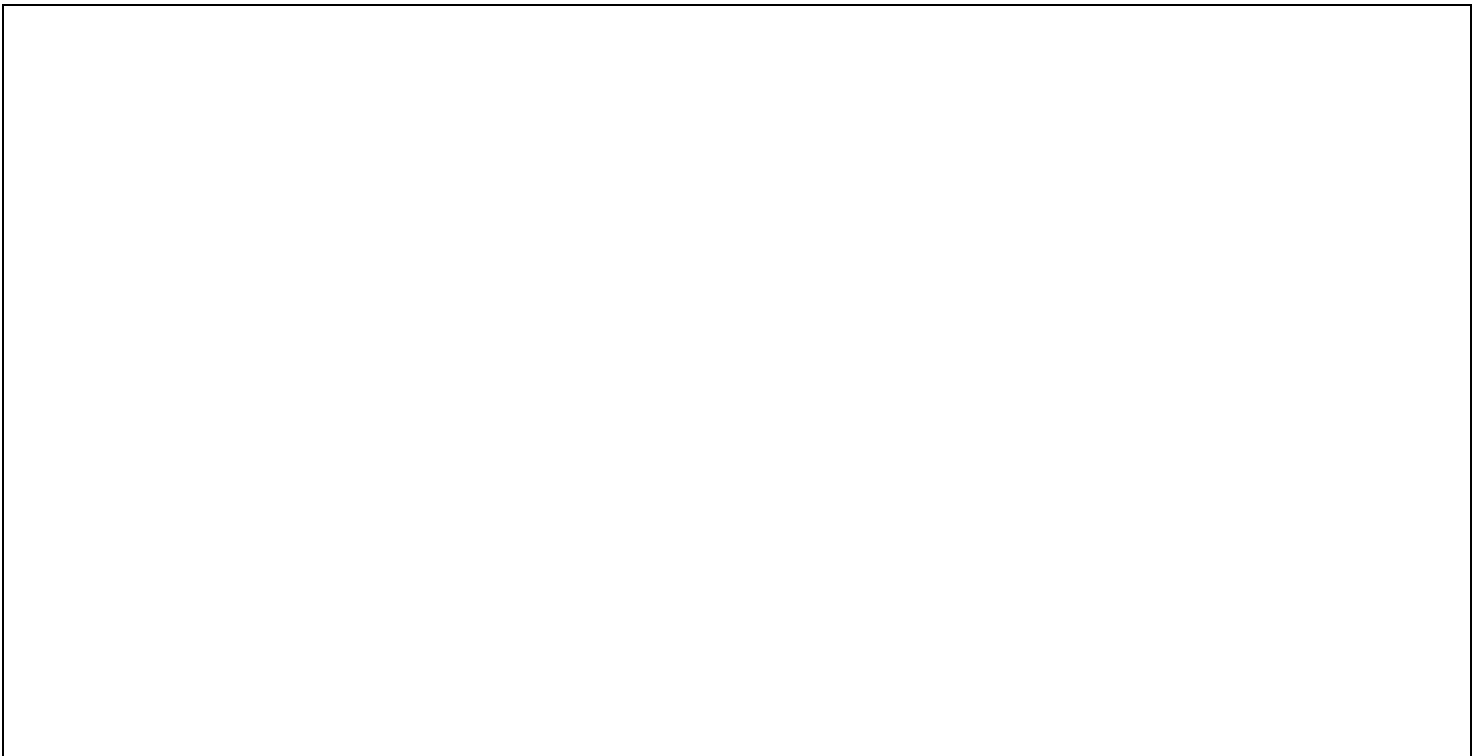

Dot Maps – Dots are placed on the map to represent an _____ – these are great to show _____

Cartograms – The size of a location is based on a particular defined characteristic – _____ is evident!

Choropleth Maps – Each unit area is _____ or _____ to suggest magnitude or intensity of the event.

Cognitive/Mental Maps – Map used to show a person's _____

Mental map from your house to Duluth High School

Flow Maps – Map that shows _____ often using arrows.

Proportional Symbol Maps – Similar to dot maps – the size of the dot grows with _____ value.

Isoline Maps – Uses lines to show places where values are _____.